Dear: [Redacted]

The purpose of this letter is to confirm the agreement made between you and Santander Consumer USA Inc. ("SC") regarding your account.

As discussed in our telephone conversation on 12/06/2017 SC agrees to allow you to settle your account by making payments on your account as follows, subject to the terms and conditions in this letter:

- Total Settlement Amount: $3,400.00
- First Payment Amount: $141.67
- First Payment Due by: 12/20/2017
- Number of Payments: 24
- Monthly Payment Due Date: Due by the 4th of each month.
- Final Payment Due Date: 12/20/2019

We have updated your account to reflect your agreement to make payments to resolve your total balance remaining in accordance with the terms of this letter. If you fail to make payments in accordance with the terms of this letter, SC will consider this settlement offer automatically revoked and null and void without further notice. In addition, SC may pursue its right to collect the full amount due in addition to pursuing any other available remedies.

Once all payments have been received by SC, posted to your account and cleared in accordance with the terms set forth in this letter, SC will (i) forgive the remaining portion of your Outstanding Balance, (ii) consider your account as settled, (iii) adjust our records to reflect the settlement of your account, (iv) report the status of your account to the credit reporting agencies as settled for less than the full balance and (v) release the title (if applicable).

Acceptable methods of payment include the following:
